ESSENCE OF CHAMPAGNE

Your week will be dedicated to learning about and exploring the Champagne region, but you will also have the chance to relax and enjoy quiet time in the warm atmosphere of your villa. Learn about all of the areas of the best production, from the Montagne of Reims famous for Pinot Noir, to the Cote de Blancs that is home to the Chardonnay grape. Passing through Grand Cru villages, we will stop in the Marne Valley to explore Pinot Meunier. A private chef will prepare a delicious breakfast each morning, as well as one dinner during the week where you will sample local traditional cuisine paired perfectly with local wine...which is, of course, Champagne! A sommelier will present the wine during dinner and explain the concept for matching food with wine, helping you recognize the different flavors that play off of each other. With transport included all week, you will have ample time to venture out into the region and explore. You will take part in a Prestige Workshop where you will learn all of the secrets of the Champagne making process. This week long experience will be a full immersion into the world of Champagne.

Exclusive Experiences

We've scoured the globe for unique travel packages that both excite and motivate travelers to travel. We've either personally visited each property or know the owners directly, allowing each group to get the best value when choosing one of our exclusive experiences. All of our packages are centrally located with easy access to transportation and dining options. A personal concierge is also included with each booking to ensure that you build the vacation of your dreams.

Terms and Conditions

The exclusive experiences nestled inside are designed for two to ten guests. If your group wants to expand the number of guests listed on any of the vacations, your requests will be honored as dates allow. Bookings are based on availability, so we encourage you to be as flexible as possible and choose up to three travel weeks when you begin the booking process to ensure that you get the dates you want. You have 30 days to confirm your trip after purchase.

Carefully consider the week you confirm as once the week is booked and confirmed, it is very difficult for us to make changes to the schedule, as such, there are no refunds or date changes allowed. We recommend that you buy travel insurance to prevent any loss from a change in schedule.

No airfare is included in any of the offerings contained within.
